

Rights Request:

“Restrict processing” or to “Object”

The law provides you with a number of individual rights which allow you to exercise control over the use of your personal information. To allow you make use of these rights WCHCT has created request documents which group similar rights together.

Use this form if you wish to request a:

- Restriction to processing
 - Object to processing
-

Restriction of Processing

You request to WCHCT to temporarily stop using your personal data, because you:

- believe the data we hold is not accurate;
 - believe we are using your personal data unlawfully, but you do not want it deleted;
 - do not want us to delete your data as you need it for a legal defence;
 - believe we have failed to evidence a compelling legitimate reason why we are using your data;
-

You Object to WCHCT continuing to use your personal data, because:

- In your circumstances you object to our “legitimate interests” use of your personal data to perform processing tasks.
- your personal data is used for sending you direct marketing messages.
- You believe it is being used for scientific or historical research or statistical purposes.

Name:

Address:

Email:

Please tell us of any reason why you think we may be holding or using information about you:

Please tell why you wish to “restrict processing” or “object” to the use of your personal data.

Please action my individual right(s) as provided in UK legislation.

Signed

Date

Please Note:

- WCHCT will complete your request within 30 days of receiving this request form.
- If WCHCT has a lawful reason to refuse your request, they will state this in writing to you and will include the reason for the decision to refuse the request within 30 days.